SECTION I
ORGANIZATIONAL PERSPECTIVE

PROFILE OF SOUTHWEST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Historical Information

Southwest Missouri State University was originally founded in 1905 as an institution for the training of teachers. To meet the changing needs of the district and the world, the academic program changed. Degree programs in the liberal arts, sciences, vocational areas, pre-professional curricula, and graduate programs were added. Today the University is a multipurpose institution of higher education.

As the University grew and developed, name changes took place. Significant dates in the development of the University were:

Founded	1905
First Classes	1906 (State Normal School Number 4)
	1919 (Southwest Missouri State Teachers College)
	1945 (Southwest Missouri State College)
	1972 (Southwest Missouri State University)

Board of Regents

The Board of Regents for Southwest Missouri State University consists of seven members, six of whom must reside in the district served by the University. The State Commissioner of Education serves as an ex officio member of the Board.

The Governor of the State of Missouri, with advice and consent of the Senate, appoints members to the Board for a term of six years.

The present Board of Regents consists of the following members:

June S. Hamra, Springfield
Edward F. Stracke, Springfield
William E. Barclay, Springfield
H. Dwight Douglas, Neosho
Carol M. Robinson, Springfield
Jay R. Padgett, West Plains
Arthur L. Mallory, Ex Officio - State Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education

Officers of the Board of Regents

H. Dwight Douglas, President
Edward F. Stracke, Vice President
Thomas E. Allen, Treasurer
Maurice E. Edwards, Secretary

Educational Task of the Institution

As a state-supported regional institution of higher education, Southwest Missouri State University recognizes its ever-increasing responsibilities:

1. To students the University pledges quality instruction in a curriculum flexible enough to permit maximum development for individuals of varying backgrounds and abilities, and breadth of opportunity both in curricular and extracurricular activities.
2. To the southwest district of Missouri the University affirms its continuing responsibility to provide men and women with the instruction and skills vital to the region and to the advancement of learning. The University also recognizes the opportunity to study and seek solutions to the technological, sociological, and cultural problems of the region and to acquaint the area with advances made elsewhere.
3. To the citizens of Missouri the University pledges to provide a program of educational excellence with a concern for economy and efficiency of operation.

Academic Divisions

The University is organizationally divided into five schools and one residence center. The following is a breakdown of academic departments by respective schools:

Presidents

William Thomas Carrington, 1906-1918

William Thomas Carrington was born on January 23, 1854, in Callaway County, Missouri. He attended Sugar Grove Academy, McGee College, Westminster College, Kirksville Normal, and the University of Missouri. He held an A.M. degree from McGee College and a M.S.D. (Master of Scientific Didactics) from Kirksville Normal. Mr. Carrington taught in rural schools in Callaway County, was principal at Piedmont, Arrow Rock, and Oak Ridge. He served as superintendent of schools at Cape Girardeau and as county superintendent in that county. From 1883 to 1887 he served as chief clerk in the State Department of Education, during which time he founded and edited the Missouri School Journal. From 1887 to 1899 he served as principal of Springfield High School and as superintendent of schools at Mexico, Missouri. Following this period, he was State Superintendent of Public Schools for approximately seven years.

With this wide range of educational experience, Mr. Carrington was well suited to become the first president of the new State Normal School, where he served until 1918. In 1918 he went to Washington, D.C., to take a position with the Department of War Risk Insurance. Following that, he was Supervisor of Vocational Education in the Missouri State Department of Education.

Mr. Carrington resided in Jefferson City until his death on January 21, 1937.

Clyde Milton Hill, 1918-1926

Clyde Milton Hill was born at West Plains, Missouri, on October 2, 1885. He held an A.B. degree from Drury College and an A.M. and a Ph.D. from Teachers College, Columbia University. Mr. Hill was a specialist on junior high schools and had served the Vermont State Department of Education and the University of Vermont in this capacity before becoming president of SMS. Mr. Hill also served as head of the Department of Mathematics at SMS. In 1925-26, he was granted a leave of absence to finish the work for his doctorate. Upon completion of his doctorate, he was offered a position of professor of secondary education and college administration in the Department of Education at Yale University. On July 23, 1926, he resigned as president of SMS and accepted the position at Yale. In 1929 he became head of the Yale Department of Education where he stayed until his retirement in 1954. He continued to reside in New Haven where he pursued the Yale-Farfield Studies and other educational projects until his death on December 31, 1965.

Roy Ellis, 1926-1961

Roy Ellis was born on March 9, 1888, near Seymour, Missouri. He graduated from Hartville High School and State Normal No. 4. He received the A.B. and B.S. in Education degrees from the University of Missouri. In 1917 he received the M.A. degree from Harvard University and in 1930 the Ph.D. degree from Columbia University. In 1960 Dr. Ellis was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of Missouri. Prior to serving as a sergeant of infantry and cavalry in World War I, Dr. Ellis taught rural schools in Wright County; served as principal of Central Grammar School, Texarkana, Arkansas; and was superintendent of schools at Greenfield, Missouri. Dr. Ellis joined the staff of SMS in 1917 to teach sociology and economics. In 1920 a new department was established in this area, and he was chosen to head it. On April 1, 1927, he was chosen as president of SMS, a position he held until his retirement on August 31, 1961. When he retired, he concluded the nation's longest tenure as college president. During his period of service at SMS, he saw the school grow from a two-year state normal school to a four-year state college. Many of the campus buildings were constructed during his years as president.

Following his retirement, Dr. Ellis continued to serve SMS in an emeritus capacity. He was asked by the Board of Regents to compile a history of the institution. Shrine of the Ozarks, a History of Southwest Missouri State College, 1905-1965, was the result of this commission.

Dr. Ellis died on January 9, 1972, in Springfield, Missouri.

Leland Eldridge Traywick, 1961-1964

Leland Eldridge Traywick was born at Okmulgee, Oklahoma, on June 7, 1915. He attended the University of Missouri where he received the A.B. degree in 1936 and the A.M. degree in 1939. He was granted the Ph.D. degree from the University of Illinois in 1942. He saw service in the Army in World War II, advancing from private to first lieutenant. Dr. Traywick taught at Stephens College, the University of Illinois, and Western Reserve University. During 1960-61 he served with the National Committee for Economic Development in New York City. Prior to his appointment as president at SMS, he was professor of economics and assistant dean of the College of Business and Public Service at Michigan State University. Dr. Traywick assumed the presidency of SMS in September, 1961, and resigned at the request of the Board of Regents in June, 1964.

Arthur Lee Mallory, 1964-1971

Arthur Lee Mallory was born on December 26, 1932, in Springfield, Missouri. He received the B.S. in Education degree from Southwest Missouri State College in 1954. From 1954 to 1956 he served in Germany with the U.S. Army. Following his tour of duty, he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Missouri, where he received a master's degree in 1957 and the Ed. D. degree in 1959. While attending graduate school, he served as assistant to the professor of city school administration, as supervisor of social studies in the University Laboratory School, and as assistant to the superintendent of the Columbia, Missouri, School System. In 1959 Dr. Mallory became assistant superintendent of the Parkway School District in St. Louis County. During this time, he taught classes for the University of Missouri in St. Louis. He also served as Dean of the Evening School of the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

In October, 1964, he was chosen by the Board of Regents to be the fifth president of SMS. On January 1, 1971, he resigned his position as president to become the Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education for Missouri.

Duane Meyer, 1971-1983

Duane Meyer was born in Carroll, Iowa, on June 29, 1926. Following graduation from high school, he served in the U.S. Navy from 1944 to 1946. He received the B.A. degree from the University of Dubuque, Iowa, in 1950. His M.A. and Ph.D. degrees were awarded by the State University of Iowa in 1952 and 1956 respectively. While enrolled at the State University of Iowa, he was a graduate teaching assistant in the Department of History. In 1955 he joined the faculty of the History Department of Southwest Missouri State University. From 1961 to 1971, he assumed the duties of dean of faculties and provost at SMS. On April 1, 1971, he was elected president. Prior to his becoming president, he twice served as acting president, the first time in 1964 and again in 1971.

Dr. Meyer is the author of a number of publications. Major publications are The Highland Scots of North Carolina, 1732-1776 and The Heritage of Missouri: A History. During his tenure as president at SMS, Dr. Meyer served on the advisory committee to the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education and as president of the Council on Public Higher Education for Missouri.

Dr. Meyer retired from his duties as president on June 30, 1983, to return to the classroom as a professor of history.

Marshall Gordon, 1983-

Dr. Marshall Gordon was born in LaCenter, Kentucky, on September 1, 1937. He received the B.A. degree from Murray State University in 1959. In 1963 he earned a doctorate at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. While enrolled at Vanderbilt, he was a teaching assistant in the Department of Chemistry. He returned to Murray State in 1963 where he joined the faculty in the Department of Chemistry. He was later named dean of the College of Environmental Sciences at Murray State and then was selected to be vice president for University Services. He also served as acting president of Murray State in early 1981.

On July 1, 1983, Dr. Gordon assumed the presidency of Southwest Missouri State University.

Dr. Gordon is the author of a number of scientific publications, has conducted extensive research, has much consultative experience, has served on numerous commissions and conferences in the state of Kentucky, and on the Board of the National Science Foundation.
